Teachers arranged for worship the idol of lord krishna and decorate the swing of krishna with garlands. Students performed pooja, Dahi-Handi and Ras-Garba rituals. They enjoyed and had lots of fun

27,28/8/22: One day night stay Picnic: A picnic and night stay for L.K.G and U.K.G students was organized to give the break to the students. We welcomed our students in a very innovative way of activities. We arranged healthy snacks, milk, lunch and dinner. We took the kids to the park where we played outdoor and indoor games with students where they enjoyed . Students also played with different toys.

On second day, When the students wake up in the morning. They did their daily routine by themselves. After that they had done dance & music were they enjoyed a very lot. Students did lots of group talking and they enjoyed. After giving them refreshment the picnic was over when they meet with their parents they all very happy and also parents were very happy to see the smile on the face of their children.

With this we were able to create trust between teachers, students and parents. By this we made a strong bond with our students. We also got to see something new inside the students from this and also we tangnt something new.
